

Emmy Noether Guest Lecture Series 2019

The Bureaucratization of Islam and its Socio-Legal Dimensions in Southeast Asia

Monday | 17.12.2018 | 16:00 – 18:00

Kerstin Steiner | La Trobe University

The Mindanao Conflict and the Bangsamoro Organic Law: an outlook for 2019

Thursday | 17.01.2019 | 17:00 – 19:00

Mirjam Künkler | Emmy Noether Project, Mercator Fellow

Pioneers in the Courtroom: female judges in Indonesia's Islamic courts

Thursday | 24.01.2019 | 17:00 – 19:00

Ward Keeler | University of Texas at Austin

Comparative Queer Southeast Asian Studies

Friday | 25.01.2019 | 17:00 – 19:00

Gunnar Stange | Universität Wien

Forced Migration in Southeast Asia

Monday | 04.02.2019 | 16:00 – 18:00

Nurul Huda Mohd Razif | IIAS Leiden

Property Division within Polygamy in Malaysian Shariah Courts

Wednesday | 20.02.2019 | 10:00 – 12:00

Roman Loimeier | Georg-August-Universität Göttingen

Individual Pieties and the Concept of the Civic State: the case of Tunisia

Monday | 25.02.2019 | 16:00 – 18:00

Adam Sabra | University of California, Santa Barbara

Household and State in Ottoman Egypt: the case of al-Sada al-Bakriya

Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Emmy Noether Guest Lecture Series 2019

Seminar Room (New Building) | MPI for Social Anthropology

Advokatenweg 36 | 06114 Halle/Saale | www.eth.mpg.de

Organiser: Dominik Müller